The competition starts on 7 June in the lead up to the film's release and closes 25 July, 2018.

Fans of all ages have been wanting to see the sequel of The Incredibles for almost 14 years – this time Helen (voice of Holly Hunter) is in the spotlight, leaving Bob (voice of Craig T. Nelson) at home with Violet (voice of Sarah Vowell) and Dash (voice of Huck Milner) to navigate the day-to-day heroics of "normal" life. It's a tough transition for everyone, made tougher by the fact that the family is still unaware of baby Jack-Jack’s emerging superpowers. When a new villain hatches a brilliant and dangerous plot, the family and Frozone (voice of Samuel L. Jackson) must find a way to work together again—which is easier said than done, even when they’re all Incredible.

Directed by Brad Bird (“Iron Giant,” “The Incredibles”) and produced by John Walker (“The Incredibles”) and Nicole Grindle (“Sanjay’s Super Team” short, “Toy Story 3” associate producer).

When Pixar Pier opens on 23 June this year at Disneyland Resort in California, the wonderful worlds of Pixar will celebrate a new home, transforming the area that is now Paradise Pier with the thrilling Incredicoaster plus four new neighbourhoods themed to Pixar stories. With themed attractions, foods and merchandise, guests will experience beloved Pixar characters and stories in incredible new ways on this seaside waterfront.

- The first of the four themed neighbourhoods guests will find at Pixar Pier is inspired by “The Incredibles” and features the new Incredicoaster.
- The popular Toy Story Mania! will anchor the “Toy Story”-inspired neighbourhood.
- A neighbourhood inspired by “Inside Out” will be found on the western side of the boardwalk and will welcome a new family-friendly attraction at a later date.
- The fourth neighbourhood will be a celebration of many favourite Pixar stories. In this neighbourhood, Mickey’s Fun Wheel will have a new look, with each of the 24 gondolas featuring different Pixar characters/
